

In agreement with the guidance provided by the American Dental Association regarding response to the spread of COVID-19, Dr. Debra Bogen, Director of the Health Department, issued the following guidance:

Due to the close proximity between patients and their dental service providers, ACHD strongly encourages that all non-emergent dental services and procedures be delayed until further notice. Dental providers should continue to offer essential services to their patients.

ADA Guidance can be found here: <https://www.ada.org/en/publications/ada-news/2020-archive/march/ada-recommending-dentists-postpone-elective-procedures>.