

BigBurgh - The City of Pittsburgh Public Safety Net, a free web app that provides easy-to-use listings of services available to people experiencing homelessness in Allegheny County. Homelessness isn't just sleeping outdoors but can also be seen as not having your own address. A person or family could be living with friends or family.

BigBurgh can also be used by anyone in need of free Social Services, from Food Pantries, Hot Meals, Clinics, Transportation Services, Clothing, Housing Assistance etc. BigBurgh also list places for people to go and take a shower or wash their clothes if they are homeless. It is accessible on a phone, computer, or any device that can access the internet.
